Honourable Vice Chancellor
Gandhiigram Rural Institute

It gives us immense pleasure to bring your kind attention that Dev Sanskriti Vishwavidyalaya, Haridwar-Uttarakhand has started GLOBE's FIRST OF ITS TYPE peer reviewed research journal -Interdisciplinary Journal of Yagya Research (IJYR; ISSN 2581-4885).

Because of its interdisciplinary nature, Yagya Research needed a common platform to integrate all research efforts. IJYR aims to provide a wider platform for disseminating and sharing results of scholarly studies in the relevant areas of Yagya Research in pursuit of furtherance of science.

Considering its interdisciplinary nature of Yagya Research, IJYR is reaching out to all prestigious institutions for call for research papers.

We would humbly like to request you to kindly inform your faculties for their contribution.

Thanking you.

Sincerely,

Viral Patel, PhD
Executive Editor, IJYR

Dear Distinguished Scholar,

Dev Sanskriti Vishwavidyalaya, Haridwar, Uttarakhand (University) has started first of its type, peer reviewed research journal - Interdisciplinary Journal of Yagya Research (IJYR) (ISSN 2581-4885) (<http://ijyr.dsvv.ac.in/>). Kindly contribute for its second issue. Qualitative, quantitative, theoretical, and concept based research articles in the relevant areas of Yagya Research are invited.

Aim and Scope of IJYR - Vedic India's one of the greatest gift to the world is 'Yagya'. Yagya has wider applications -

- Clinical & Ayurvedic aspects of Yagya
- Environmental and Agricultural aspects of Yagya
- Scriptural, philological, philosophical and social aspects of Yagya
- Spiritual and astrological aspects of Yagya
- Historical dimensions (culture, traditions, rituals) of Yagya

Considering its interdisciplinary nature, Yagya Research needed a common platform to integrate all research efforts. IJYR aims to provide a wider platform for disseminating and sharing results of scholarly studies in the relevant areas of Yagya Research in pursuit of furtherance of science.

IJYR is an open-access quality-conscious journal published biannually in online form and all articles accepted for publication after peer reviews are published free. Qualitative, quantitative, theoretical, and concept based research articles in the relevant areas of Yagya Research (<http://ijyr.dsvv.ac.in/scope-of-the-journal/>) are invited. Manuscript, typed in Microsoft-Word format as per Author's Guideline along with copyright form, must be submitted at IJYR@dsvv.ac.in before September 30, 2018.

Please circulate this information among your colleagues, peers & friends for the research article contribution to IJYR.

Best Regards,
