Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings!

It gives me immense pleasure to inform you that the Department of Social Science and Humanities of the prestigious National Law University Jodhpur is conducting two short certificate courses of two weeks duration each. The titles of the courses are:

- Economics of Development, and
- Public Economics

The courses are designed with a view to imparting the basic idea of growth, development and sustainable development to the participants. The course content touches upon the role of the government in increasing welfare through its policies. The Certificate Courses would be beneficial for the students of Law, Commerce and Arts. Participation is open to all Under Graduate and Post Graduate students, those preparing for Civil Services, NET and other competitive exams, scholars pursuing PhD, or those who are involved in independent research, social activists and professionals.

I would request you to share this information with your students and research scholars. I am enclosing links where-from prospective participants can browse the details of the courses and access the Registration Form.
