Sub: Launch of Indian School of Agri Business (ISAB) New Delhi, Admission Open for Batch 2018-20 - 'MBA Agri Business Management'

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from Indian Council of Food and Agriculture, New Delhi

Indian Council of Food and Agriculture (ICFA) is an autonomous organisation in India with a mandate for policy research, business and trade facilitation in food and agriculture sector, and also serving as global platform for partnerships, food safety and GAP certification, agribusiness education, training and entrepreneurship development.

ICFA endeavours to groom agriculture and allied streams students for professional excellence, skill development and exposure to innovative solutions and to build next generation of agriculture and food business management leadership. Having regard to the need for an institution of excellence to nurture excellence in the field of agribusiness. ICFA Governing Board under the chairmanship of Professor RB Singh has decided to launch The 'INDIAN SCHOOL OF AGRIBUSINESS (ISAB)' from current academic year i.e. 2018-20.

ISAB strives to build cutting edge management capabilities through professional skill training, quality research, value-added consultancy and industry as well as corporate oriented course curriculum. The enrolment of eligible and meritorious candidate would be available in two flagship management programmes namely 'MBA Agri Business' and 'MBA Specialized Courses on nine agro industries from 02 Dec 2017 to 28 Feb 2018 through both online and offline mode.

This is for your kind information soliciting your active cooperation for its widest possible circulation among the student community. An Admission Poster of ISAB is enclosed. For further details, kindly access ISAB web page www.isab.org.in

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Dinesh Chauhan
