Dear Colleagues / Friends,

Greetings from Gandhigram.

The Journal of Extension and Research (JER) is published by Gandhigram Rural Institute - Deemed to be University, Gandhigram. The Journal has strong research and extension base to disseminate the knowledge based upon results of empirical investigations in Pure and Applied Sciences as well as Humanities and Social Sciences, We prefer to carry the innovative and creative approaches, models, methods adopted in the research process to contribute new knowledge in order to influence policies and development programmes of Governmental and Non-Governmental Organisations to reach the unreached as well to reach grass root level Institutions and also for the benefit of hither to excluded and marginalised segments.

Therefore, I request all our friends and colleagues to contribute original articles based upon empirical investigations with a very strong research methodological support to publish the same in the forthcoming issues of Journal of Extension and Research. May I look forward to receive your research papers / articles / monographs / case studies / short communication / book review etc., on or before 31.05.2019.

The Guidelines for Contributors are attached for your kind information.

With kind regards.

(M. Soundarapandian)

GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

1. Journal of Extension and Research (JER) invites original articles not exceeding 5000 words / typed on one side of the sheet, double spaced with adequate margins on four sides of the sheet.
2. An abstract, not exceeding 100 words should accompany each article
3. Research papers / articles must be submitted through Email gridujer@gmail.com processed M.S word for windows.
4. It is not necessary initially to submit hard copies of the research Paper/article.
5. In the text, adopt the author, date, method of citation - the comma e.g. (Moorthi 2015). In case more than one work of an author is quoted, differentiate the years of publication with a comma (Julie 2012, 2010).
6. Page Numbers should be separated for the citation by a colon (Srinivas 110: 135) and hyphenate in the inclusive numbers (Saleem 2008: 255-60)
7. If more than one author is cited, entries must be chronological with works of different authors separated by a semicolon (Daniel 1990; Christopher 1980; prabhu 1995).
8. In the case of Co-authored works cite both names (Gilbert and Martin 2005); and works authored by more than three authors adopt et al after the first name (Muckherjee et al. 2015).
9. If a citation is repeated in a paragraph without intervening citations, use ibid instead of repeating the author's name once again and cite the relevant page number(s) (ibid:65).
10. When Government records are cited, mention the name of organisation/Institution sponsored the publication in the citation, fully spelt out first instant (Government of India 2010), and adopts its abbreviation / acronym in further citations (GOI 2010).

11. Provide separately the Bibliography particulars of all works cited in the article under References as follows: a) Article: the name(s) of the author(s); the year of publication; Title of article; the name of journal (Italicised); and the volume number, the issue number, and the beginning and ending page number. Book: the listing of References should follow the alphabetical order of the last name (first) of author.

12. Tables, figures, maps, charts etc. should be presented at the appropriate place in the page.

13. Adopt British rather than American, spellings (programme instead of Program, colour instead of color, organisation instead of organisation).

14. Contributions must provide on a separate page their name, designation, address, E. Mail ID, Contact Numbers and also a declaration by the author(s) stating that this paper/article is not submitted/being considered for publication elsewhere.
