Online Education

1. Does all programs/courses were completed on time.	Yes
--	-----

2. Measures taken to complete the syllabus of courses and programs.		The Gandhigram Rural Institute (Deemed to be University), has proactively devised various strategies to facilitate effective on-line teaching and learning. "Microsoft Teams" was deployed as the platform for Learning Management System (LMS). The faculty members used MS-Teams for handling lecture sessions, sharing learning resources as well as for conducting tests and examinations. On-line quizzes were designed and conducted for continuous evaluations. Through discussion room of MS-Teams, collaborative learning was infused in teaching. The faculty members could hand pick and upload the possible e-resources in public domain to ensure self-paced learning. The institute has an exclusive e-portal deployed in the website, to address the issues faced by the students, regarding on-line learning. The institute has taken special efforts to ensure inclusivity of students from remote villages in on-line education. E-mail, Whatsapp groups, etc., were used by both students and teachers. The students were trained to take tests / semester examinations through online. Many of the departments, had encouraged the students to enroll in on-line courses, webinars, workshops, and training programmes on curricular and co-curricular events to augment multi-pronged learning. The virtual practicals on computer programming were meticulously handled with the support of on-line programming tools and open-source software. The supervised on-line practical sessions were meticulously conducted by the respective faculty members, during the lockdown. Each department has a duly constituted department committee that meets every semester, monitors the progress of scheduled activities, including students' attendance, completion of syllabus and conduct of tests. The scheduled time table, for conduct of classes and exams were strictly complied which enabled the institute to complete, the activities of odd and even semester on-time. This mechanism greatly helps the departments monitor the progress and mitigate and manage any reported problems on-time.
