The meeting of IQAC began with a silent prayer. The Vice-Chancellor i/c, Dr. M. Sundaravadivelu welcomed the members of the IQAC, GRI. In his address, he highlighted the need for swift initiatives towards quality enhancement and sustenance, to combat the challenges of Higher Educational Institutions. In addition, he gave a brief picture about the strategic plans of GRI to reach the higher planes of ranking and accreditation.

The Director, IQAC presented the Annual Quality Assurance Report 2018-19. The corrections, updates and modifications suggested by the Vice-Chancellor, external, and internal members of were instantly incorporated into the draft report.

The external member, Sri. Thamizhiniyan Natarajan, Director, Development Symantec Corporation, Chennai, who is an alumnus of this institute, recorded his appreciations about the growth, development and ventures of GRI. He stressed that to cope up with the changing expectations of the employers, GRI should take special efforts to prepare and produce industry-ready graduates. He also added that GRI should objectively augment the outcome-based networking with the stakeholders, industries, institutions and alumni, which shall pay-off in redefining the standards and procedures on par with the changing ecosystem and its climates. He further reiterated that strengthening the activities of Alumni Association will broadly help the institute to formulate new strategies especially for placement. He also insisted that the potentials of ICT should be thoroughly harnessed in the light of e-governance and other automations. The authorities may take steps to establish a full-fledged Training & Placement Cell to strengthen the placement activities, he added.

During the discussion, it was felt that the matters to be immediately addressed towards the compliance for the forthcoming NAAC are deployment of a full-fledged Learning Management System (LMS) for GRI, On-line Teaching and Learning strategies and incorporation of Outcome Based Educations (OBE) for all the programmes offered by GRI at the earliest.

It was also recommended to provide the essential computing facilities to the IQAC, as the quantum of data storage and collation has been exponentially increasing as per the requirements of the Accreditation and ranking agencies. The members had expressed that GRI should vibrantly strategize on Patents, Incubation Centres and start-ups, which are also the vital parameters of accreditation and assessment.

The Registrar expressed that GRI is at its best efforts to equip itself in all the essential quarters of higher accreditation and grading.

The student representatives recorded that On-line learning platforms such as Spoken Tutorials and SWAYAM are helpful to validate their learning outcomes. They also requested to augment the ICT facilities and to modernize the lab infrastructures. The students expressed their satisfaction about the leaning climate at GRI.

The Vice-Chancellor, summed up stating that with the due support and conscious contribution of the committed faculty members, GRI would be able to excel and progress in the essential domains with promising tangible and intangible outcomes.

The external members, Sri. Muralidharan Jayaraman, Director Consulting, CGI, Bengaluru, and Sri. C.P.Arun Kumar, Managing Partner, Arun Tex, Bus Stand Road, Chinnalapatti-624 301, Dindigul District could not attend the meeting.

The meeting came to an end with the vote of thanks by the IQAC Director.
