I am to invite attention to the references cited.

2) I am to state that in the State, the process of Innovation is institutionalized and necessary financial and administrative support has been provided to implement the innovation. Accordingly, the Tamil Nadu Innovation Initiatives (TANII) has been established in the State Planning Commission "to promote innovation culture in Tamil Nadu" and a "State Innovation Fund" has been created.

3) As per the guidelines issued in the G.O. second referred above there will be two round of sanction for funding from the State Innovation Fund. Therefore, the detailed proposals are requested to forward through concerned Department Secretary, for the first round of appraisal for 2022-23 by the State Planning Commission on or before 20.10.2021.

4) I am to state that the Innovative proposals, to be eligible for funding under the State Innovation Fund will require to fulfill the criteria prescribed in the G.O. second cited. The proposals weeded out previously by the State Planning Commission as well as similar proposals should not be forwarded again. However, the proposals that were considered by State Planning Commission and suggested for revision may be included with suitable modifications in accordance with the suggestions. The detailed proposals should be forwarded along with the appraisal format enclosed with this letter. The detailed proposal without appraisal format (or) the appraisal format without detailed proposal will be summarily rejected. It is also insisted that the proposals should clearly articulate the specific innovation to be implemented / tested duly identifying a public issue or problem and the proposals which do not constitute an innovation will not be considered.

5) The proposals received after 20.10.2021 will not be considered for appraisal, since the pre TANII to examine the proposals with the individual Head of the Departments will be scheduled during November 2021.

6) I kindly inform that a D.O. letter, addressed to the Secretaries has been sent vide reference 4th cited.

7) I request you to furnish the TANII proposals on or before 20.10.2021 through proper channel to State Planning Commission.

Yours faithfully,

S.S. Ravichandran
Head of Division (EE) (FAC)
