NOTE TO CONTRIBUTORS

1. Gandhigram Literary Review is a peer-reviewed journal published by the Registrar, The Gandhigram Rural Institute—Deemed University, Gandhigram. It is an inter-disciplinary journal straddling language and literature on the one hand and theory on the other with a view to promoting original inquiries into the areas of language and literature from a critical perspective backed by solid theoretical underpinnings. It strives to promote theoretical/ideological studies of individual authors, both canonical and non-canonical, and their works.
2. All articles sent for consideration should be original and should not have been published elsewhere in any form. Contributors are requested to give a declaration to this effect.
3. Two copies of the MS should be submitted. A soft copy (in MS-Word format) too should be emailed to the Editor, Gandhigram Literary Review (gandhigramreview@gmail.com / josephdorairaj@gmail.com).
4. An Abstract (in about 150 words) should accompany the MS.
5. The first page of the MS should contain only the author's name, his/her institutional affiliation and the title of the article. Neither the author's name nor his/her institutional affiliation should appear anywhere else.
6. The length of the article should not exceed 3000 words. The preferred font is Times New Roman and the size is 12, typed in double space.
7. Contributors should strictly adhere to MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers (7th Edition).
8. Views and opinions expressed in the Journal need not be construed as the views and opinions of the Editor or the University that publishes the Journal.
9. All correspondence should be addressed to the Editor.
10. Please email your queries, if any, to gandhigramreview@gmail.com / josephdorairaj@gmail.com.
